E. T. W. UNIVERSITY.

Close of the First Term.

ATHENS, Dec. 23, 1880. MR. EDITOR: The fi at term of the present scholastic year at East Tennessee Wesleyan university closed last night "he term has been one of unusual pesperity, the enrollment in the literary department having been larger than during the first term of any previous year, with one exception. The semi annual examinations convened Tuesday, and ended Thursday. On Wednesday evening was given the annual under-graduate exhibition. A large audience was in attendance, and the participants in the exercises all acquited themselves with signal credit. On Thursday evening Bishop Warren lectured to a full house. The bishop has few equals as a platform orator, and on this occasion he spoke in his happiest vein.

The second term will open Monday, January 3d, 1881. New students are already beginning to come in, and it is expected that the attendance the coming term will be as large, if not larger, than ever before. ARGUS.

Littell's Living Age.

In 1881 THE LIVING AGE enters upon its thirtyeighth year, admittedly unrivalled and contin-nously successful. During the year it will furnish to its readers the productions of the most eminent authors, above-vemed and mspy others; embracing the choicest Serial and Short Stories by the Lesding Foreign Novelists, and an amount Unapproached,by,any other Periodical in the world, of the most valuable Literary and Scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the foremost Essayists, Scientist-, Critics, Discoverers, and Editors, representing every department of Knowledge and Progress.

The Living Age is a weekly magazine giving more than THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND double-column octavo pages of reading matter double-column octavo pages of reading matter yearly. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Tales, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

It is therefore invaluable to every American reader, as the only satisfactorily fresh and COM-PLETE compilation of an indispensable current literature,—indispensable because it embraces the productions of the the productions of the ABLEST LIVING WRITERS. "In no other form can so much thoroughly good reading be got for so little money; in no other form can so much instruction and entertainment be got in so small a space."-Philadelohia Times, "There is no other publication like it. It is known and read by all who desire to keep abreast with the cultivated thought of the English-speaking world."—Episcopal Register, Philadel-"It reproduces so fully the choicest articles from the foreign magazines that one who takes it does not feel the need of anything else in the way of foreign periodical literature."—The Advance, Chicago.

"Its frequent issue and ample space enable it to give all that the very ablest of living writers furnish to periodical literature on science, history, biography, philosophy, poetry, theology, politics and criticism, and to add to this the full complement of the best that there is in fiction. The Interior, Chicago, "Gives the best of all at the price of one." New York Independent. "Teems with the choicest literature of the day."—New York Tribune.

"It is, by all odds, the best celectic published." Southern Churchman, "It enables the reader, at a trifling expense

"One cannot read everything......No man will be behind the literature of the times who reads THE LIVING AGE."—Zion's Herald, Boston, "We know of no investment of eight dollars, in the world of literature, that will yield equal returns,"—The Presbyterian, Philadelphia, "It has no rival."—New York Evening Post.
